FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Lakeview Family,

There is something about this time of year that invites us to remember. A familiar recipe, a song, a decoration pulled from its box—and suddenly a story comes with it. We remember the people who gathered around our tables and the traditions that made us feel at home. We give thanks. And as November leads us toward Advent, we begin to wonder what this next season might hold.

This year, I get to enter that season with you for the first time, and that brings me such joy! I am looking forward to learning Lakeview's traditions, hearing the stories behind them, and making new memories together. There is so much to celebrate in the church family we have been, the community we are today, and all we are still becoming.

I recently attended the Center for Abundant Aging's annual symposium, "Engaging Generations: Connecting Lives So All Can Thrive." I left with my mind full of possibilities for Lakeview. I kept thinking about what happens when people of different generations have the opportunity to really know one another. Who has a story we have never heard? Who has something to teach us? What might happen if we made more room to discover those things?

And what a wonderful season to begin! Think of everything we do to prepare for the holidays: cooking, decorating, rehearsing music, setting tables, and making room for guests. Each offers an opportunity to invite someone of another generation alongside us. Imagine the stories shared while hanging ornaments, the laughter over a recipe, or a child discovering why a particular tradition matters to someone who has cherished it for decades. Those moments can become part of our shared story. Imagining us preparing together fills me with such hopeful, joy-filled anticipation for our life together.

One opportunity to nurture those connections is growing right here in our Children, Youth, and Family (CYF) ministry. We are already seeing growth and hope to add another class sooner rather than later! That is something to celebrate—and something we can help make possible. Would you consider offering a Sunday to assist Corey and spend time with our young people? When we show up, learn their names, listen to their stories, and explore faith alongside them, we give life to the welcome we proclaim. We help our children and youth know: you are already an important part of this church family. Your questions, your gifts, and your presence matter to our life together, right now.

That sense of possibility also accompanies me as I spend time with each of your families. One conversation leads to another story, and that story helps me see Lakeview a little more clearly. I hear what you treasure, what you have carried, and what you hope for. I leave those visits grateful for what you have shared and excited for the life we are building together.

So when I speak of hopeful anticipation, I am speaking from my own heart. God is stirring some great things among us. As we prepare our church and our homes for this season, may we also make room in our lives for one another—and for the stories still waiting to unfold.

What a gift to be your pastor in this season of life. I am so grateful to be walking this journey with you.

With love and hopeful anticipation,
Pastor Anthony

CYF (Children, Youth, and Family Ministry)

Autumn seems to officially be upon us! In our Children, Youth and Family Ministry here at Lakeview that season shift kicks us into high gear as we focus on gratitude while continuing in our lessons with the Narrative Lectionary and prepare for Advent. Rehearsals for this year's Christmas Play have officially begun, but if your kiddo would like to join us please let me know as soon as possible so we can make sure they are included. We will be performing it on December 20th during our Intergenerational Worship Service so please mark your calendars and join us!

Confirmation kicks off in early January for any teen (13 yrs and older by January 1, 2027) that would like to participate. Please remember that confirmation is completely voluntary for our teens, but is a great opportunity to get to know more about our faith and others. Parents of eligible teens please be on the lookout for an informational email from us (Lakeview.CYF@gmail.com) in the next week.

Our Youth Group is meeting on Saturday, Nov. 14th from 4-7pm at Lakeview for our 1st Annual Friends-giving Meal & Board Game Day! All teens 13-18 yrs old are welcome to join us! We would absolutely LOVE to have friends of our Lakeview Teens join us at this Youth Group, especially, but it would help us to know in advance how many to expect so we can be sure to have enough food and supplies.

Our November schedule is below - if you have questions please reach out. We LOVE talking about what is happening in our Teen & Youth ministry at Lakeview!

Thank you again for all your love and support for our Children, Youth and Families here at Lakeview!

ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

Curious About Lakeview? Come Explore With Us!
Inquirers Class | November 1 & 15
11:30 a.m. | Conference Room | Food and drinks provided

Perhaps you've recently found your way to Lakeview. Perhaps you've been worshipping with us for a while and are wondering about membership. Or perhaps you simply want to know more about this community and the United Church of Christ. Whatever brings you, you're invited to our upcoming Inquirers Class!

Over two gatherings, we'll explore who we are, what we value, and how we live our faith together. We'll talk about Lakeview's connection to the wider UCC, what it means to be a covenant community, and the opportunities we share for worship, service, spiritual growth, and belonging.

Bring your questions, your curiosity, and your story. You don't need to have everything figured out, and participating carries no obligation to join. This is an opportunity to get to know one another and consider what your next step might be—all while sharing food and conversation!

Interested? Please let Pastor Anthony or Linda Overholt know. We look forward to exploring with you!

Lunch and Learn November 8th

Our Lunch & Learn for November will feature a guest speaker, Hank Stonerook, who will share information with us on climate change. Hank was an organizer at the Heartland Conference Climate Summit held in October. He is a retired environmental engineer who spent most of his career working with industry and local governments to address environmental concerns. This work included assessments of Brownfield sites and obtaining and monitoring environmental permits for businesses. He is a charter member of Westerville Community United Church of Christ and co-chair of the Environmental Care and Justice Network of the Heartland Conference of the UCC. He is a former Peace Corps volunteer and a world traveler.

Please plan to attend to learn more about climate change and what we can do about it.

Lunch & Learn takes place right after our Sunday service. As usual there will be a signup sheet in the lobby. But all are welcome even if you don't bring a dish.

There is always plenty to eat!

Lakeview UCC - Leadership Opportunities

We are searching for a vice-moderator candidate to begin in 2027, & those who are interested in training this year for a future Treasurer/ Assistant Treasurer position. Please reach out to Adam Paul if you have any questions or would like to be nominated.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS ...continuedSandwiches for Our Daily Bread

On October 11th about 20 Lakeview members gathered after church to make sandwiches for Our Daily Bread. We made about 250 sandwiches. A huge thank you to everyone who helped! Special thanks to Dave Maile for organizing the meat sandwiches, and to Jody McOskey for offering to deliver them to ODB. Jody not only transported the sandwiches, but she also came to my house to pick them up. As always, the AIM committee is amazed and humbled by the number of people at Lakeview who donate time and funds to make our mission programs successful.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS ...continuedWord & Wonder: Bring Your Questions!*November 8, 15 & 22 | 9–9:45 a.m. | Room 9

Faith makes room for curiosity! Join Pastor Anthony for Word & Wonder, a space to explore, ask questions, and discover together.

Our first series, “Between the Lines: Exploring the Bible with Curiosity & Courage,” invites us to consider how we approach the Bible, what we bring to its stories, and how these ancient texts speak into our lives today.

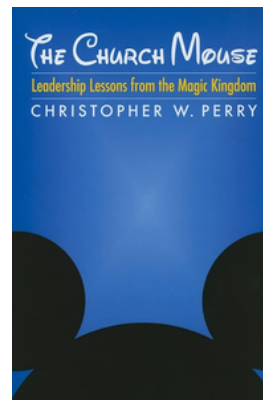

No matter how much—or how little—you feel you know about the Bible, there is a place for you in this conversation. Bring your questions, your experiences, and even the things you’ve wondered whether you’re allowed to ask. You don’t need to arrive with the answers; we’ll explore together!

Come ready to wonder with us—and watch for our Advent and Epiphany series, “When Heaven Whispers—Stars, Stories, & the Search for God.”

Book Group: A Little Disney Magic, A Lot to Explore!Begins Thursday, November 5 | 6-7:30 p.m.

The consensus is in—Thursday evenings seem to work for almost everyone! I’m excited to gather for our first Book Group beginning November 5.

I always like to start with hospitality. How we welcome people, care for them, and help them experience belonging lays the foundation for our ministry together. That’s why our first book will be The Church Mouse: Leadership Lessons from the Magic Kingdom by Christopher W. Perry.

Perry, a United Methodist pastor and author, explores how Disney’s approach to hospitality, creativity, and leadership can inspire the church. Together, we’ll consider what those lessons might spark in our shared life at Lakeview.

Whether you’re an avid reader or haven’t joined a book discussion before, you are welcome! No Disney expertise or church leadership experience is needed—just curiosity and a willingness to share and listen.

Please order your book soon! It likely won’t be stocked at your local bookstore and will most likely need to be purchased online. Allow time for delivery before our first gathering.

A.I.M. (Action In Mission)The Christmas Fund

Yes, it's time to talk about The Christmas Fund (already), which is Lakeview's November mission of the month.

This UCC fund provides financial aid to retired and active ministers, as well as retired lay employees, their surviving spouses and children. This mission is one of the five all-church missions of the UCC that we support annually.

The Christmas Fund:

- Provides bonus checks at Christmas to low-income retired clergy families and widowed spouses.
- Supplements pensions of low- income retired clergy and widowed spouses.
- Provides emergency grants for financial crises in the lives of active and retired clergy.
- Pays or subsidizes some health plan and insurance costs for low-income retired and disabled clergy and lay employees of the Church.

Please consider donating to our November mission. Your contributions to this fund allow you to be a blessing for those who have served or are currently serving us in the United Church of Christ's ministry. Join with others in the United Church of Christ to return grace to those who have given so much to each of us and to our churches. .If you have questions about this mission, please direct them to Pastor Anthony or Linda Overholt.

CHRISTMAS GIVING: SPONSOR A RESIDENT FROM REM HOMES

As part of Lakeview's Christmas giving mission, we would like to continue our tradition of sponsoring the ladies residing in the group home next door to our church (REM Homes/Sevita Health). For some who are new to Lakeview, the ladies used to attend our church on a semi-regular basis.

Currently, there are three ladies in the home. One of the ladies is older and is a longtime resident, and the others are younger residents (ages 26 and 28). It would be a loving gesture if we could continue to provide a little joy to the ladies this holiday season.

Those who sponsor an individual will provide gifts (from a list of suggestions) for that person. It is also a great idea for people to share a name and go in together to provide a nice Christmas for that individual. Please contact Ellen Abel (ellenabel1016@gmail.com; 513-967-5022) if you would like to sponsor a R.E.M. resident, or sign up in the narthex). Thank you!

Our 5th Sunday Mission offering in November supports MARCC, the Metropolitan Area Religious Coalition of Cincinnati.

For nearly 60 years MARCC has provided a forum for the religious community in Greater Cincinnati to come together to advocate for social justice issues affecting the broader community.

MARCC is a coalition of 10 judicatories or denominations including representatives from Jewish, Muslim, Roman Catholic, Protestant and Unitarian Universalist congregations. The United Church of Christ is one of the judicatories, and although smaller in membership than some other denominations, UCC representatives have an equal voice in decisions that are made by consensus. MARCC's financial support for their small paid staff is generated by annual contributions from each judicatory.

Primary targets of MARCC's current advocacy include:

- Community Safety
- Immigration
- Housing Justice

Please give as generously as you are able, as this is our one chance to join with our greater Cincinnati UCC congregations to support MARCC. If you have questions, please contact Linda Overholt.

Lunch at Queen City Kitchen Saturday, November 28th

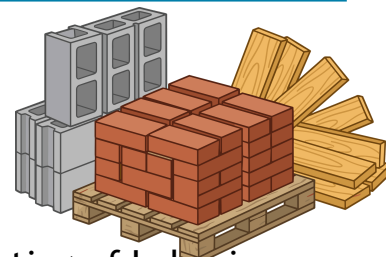

Saturday, November 28 is the date for our next opportunity to serve lunch to our Walnut Hills neighbors. This is one of our missions that allows us to feed folks in this neighborhood six times a year, and it also allows us as members of Lakeview to work together and enjoy each other's company. We meet at the kitchen located in Walnut Hills Baptist Church at 10:30, cook and then serve lunch from 12 noon to 1:30pm. After a quick clean-up, we're out by 2:00.

Walnut Hills Baptist Church is located at 2386 Kemper Lane, Cincinnati, OH 45206. Please contact Ruthie McCormack if you wish to be a part of this fun group. We'd be glad to have you join in.

Capital Campaign Update

Paving the Way November 2026

On Sunday, March 16th, 2025, at the congregational meeting of Lakeview UCC, a vote was taken to extend the 2022 Capital Campaign. Now that the second mortgage has been paid off (February 24, 2025), extending the campaign will enable the church to gather funds for much needed property projects.

So, prayerfully consider extending your commitment to the capital campaign. As of October 13th, we have $88,355.16. We were able to pay for the asphalt sealing ($6540.00) and the HVAC unit for Fellowship Hall ($12,980.00) on August 20th from the previously accumulated funds. Thank you! Now Lakeview can complete several items on the property needs list. Any gift is gratefully appreciated. Please remember to mark your gift "Capital Campaign" so the Financial Secretary, Julie Peterson, can place it in the proper designation.

Also, as you consider your 2027 commitment to Lakeview, if you are giving a new gift to the Capital Campaign remember to indicate that on your pledge. Thank you!

I will keep you informed about the progress each month in The Link.

Gratefully,
Karen Baumann, Treasurer

Refugees

Refugees are people who have fled their countries to escape conflict, violence, or persecution and have sought safety in another country. - UNHCR, the UN Refugee Agency

From the poem "Home" by Warshan Shire:

"No one leaves home unless home is the mouth of a shark / you only run for the border when you see the whole city running as well."

"You have to understand; no one puts their children in a boat unless the water is safer than the land."

I have just finished reading the memoir "Never Say Die" by Ke Huy Quan. The book is a great memoir of an amazing life and career.

Ke (pronounced 'key') is a former child actor and as an adult became a martial arts trainer and stunt choreographer, production assistant, adult actor and finally became an Oscar winner.

When Ke was 7 years old he became a refugee. His family was deported from Vietnam after that government wanted all ethnic-Chinese to be out of the country. Most of his family then spent 1-½ years in a camp in Hong Kong.

His mother was able to escape Vietnam with three of their nine children, earlier, leaving Ke's Dad to continue caring for the other children. During that time his father's business was shut down, and they had to subsist on the savings they had left.

During two escape attempts, Ke was put in a Vietnamese jail with his father and some of his siblings; once for 3 weeks and a second time for 3 months. Ke was only 7 years old.

About leaving Vietnam and living in the refugee camp in Hong Kong, Ke wrote: "I didn't really understand what Sham Shui Po (the camp) was. Grown-ups said it was a 'refugee camp,' but to me it just felt like a place where you waited until someone decided what to do with you. Dad told us we had to stay there until another country accepted us."

"The local newspapers called us a burden. On the radio, commentators blamed refugees for rising crime, for crowded schools, for disappearing jobs. They spoke as if we had arrived to take something from them, not because we had already lost everything. I didn't understand politics then, but I understood the way people looked at us - like they wished we didn't exist."

One-and-a-half years after his mother left Vietnam, Ke, his siblings and his father were finally able to join the rest of the family in Los Angeles when they were admitted to the United States under the Refugee Admission Program in 1979.

Reunited in California, the large family worked hard, doing the best they could while the kids were in school to try to fill in the gaps in their education.

In 1982 Ke, and his younger brother David, walked into an audition for a movie. Two weeks later, Ke was invited to attend a meeting later with Steven, George, and Harrison. The men were Steven Spielberg, George Lucas and Harrison Ford. The movie being cast was "Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom." At age 13, Ke played the part of "Short Round" in that film. After that he played "Data" in the movie "The Goonies."

After some roles in TV, Ke left acting when the roles dried up. Ke attended college, took on other jobs in entertainment, and much later returned to acting. Ke played "Waymond" in the film "Everywhere Everything All At Once." He won an Oscar for that film for Best Supporting Actor.

In the Bible there are many verses about strangers:

'You shall not oppress a sojourner. You know the heart of a sojourner, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.' Exodus 23:9 (ESV)

'You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.' Deuteronomy 10:19

'When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. 34 You shall treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.'

Leviticus 19:33-34 (ESV)

'Cursed is anyone who withholds justice from the foreigner, the fatherless or the widow. Then all the people shall say, 'Amen!'" Deuteronomy 27:19 (NIV)

So, then how shall we welcome the stranger? The refugee? The lost? Those who are seeking a new and safe home and a better way of life? What potential and vigor do refugees bring to our community? What wonderful things might blossom from them being here?

For Ke and his family, success was not assured, but they kept moving forward. His siblings all succeeded in many areas.

Lakeview UCC has been engaged with a resettled Venezuelan family and has also supported oppressed Haitian immigrants in Springfield, Ohio and other places.

Please continue to prayerfully consider ways that you can continue to support immigrants of all kinds, with your head, your heart and your hands.

Thank you.
