Mission of the Month: Neighbors in Need

Neighbors in Need is a special offering of the UCC that supports ministries of justice and compassion throughout the United States. Our gifts support American Indian UCC congregations and their pastors, as well as national ministries that address poverty, economic development, global concerns, civil and human rights, peace-making, racial and economic justice, environmental concerns and public policy advocacy. This year will see a special emphasis on projects serving our immigrant communities. See the bulletin board for more information. Please consider a gift to this cause.

They are encouraged to dine with the guests, and they stay until about 8:45 p.m. Overnight hosts report at about 8:30 to 8:40 p.m., and will spend the night and see the guests off in the morning, leaving at about 7:15 to 7:30 a.m. See, call or email Ellen Abel if you would like to be a part of this worthwhile mission or if you have never participated before and have questions.

New Selection for the Thursday Evening

Book Group: The Forgotten Creed: Christianity's Original Struggle against Bigotry, Slavery, and Sexism Thursdays beginning Oct. 10, 7:30 p.m. in Room 8

A new book for the Fall! Our book group will be starting back up and we will be reading and discussing The Forgotten Creed: Christianity's Original Struggle against Bigotry, Slavery, and Sexism by Stephen J. Patterson. This book explores how, in a world where foreigners were feared, slaves were human chattel, and men questioned whether women were really human after all, the followers of Jesus proclaimed: "You are all children of God. There is no Jew or Greek, no slave or free, no male and female, for you are all one."

The book is available in paperback and in an electronic version, so check out your favorite book purveyor to get a copy and join with us to discuss and learn from the book and from each other. Everyone is invited. Please call the church office or see Pastor Todd if you have any questions.
