Each newsletter also includes an individual and personal note, and for many of the readers, it is their only connection outside the prison walls. Thank you for your gifts and for your continued support of this ministry. If you have questions or need more information please contact Sue Anderson at lucprisonministry@fuse.net

Compassion through Hospitality

- What do you think of Jesus' response to the rich ruler? Do you think you would have felt compassion like Jesus did? (Or frustration? Or understanding? Or anger? Something else?)
- Imagine for a moment you are the rich ruler. You want so badly to follow Jesus, but you have a lot of stuff and Jesus is asking you to give it all away. How do you think you would feel and what do you think you would do?
- When you don't do what God has asked you to do, how do you picture God responding to you? Do you imagine God looks at you with loving compassion like Jesus did in this story?
- Sometimes, we don't feel able to do something big right away, but we can take baby steps and make small choices in that direction. Is there something in your life that feels too big to do right now? What is a step you could take in that direction, even if it's small?
