Lumos Players to Present "Miracle on South Division Street" by Tom Dudzick

Dec. 13 (7:30 p.m.), Dec. 14 (7:30 p.m.) & Dec. 15 (2 p.m.)

Kick off your holiday season with the Nowaks of Buffalo, NY. Clara and her three adult children have always known they were special, ever since the miraculous Christmas Eve in 1942 when the Blessed Mother appeared to Grandpa in his barbershop!

When Ruth unveils her plan to write and star in a one-woman Christmas show about the family miracle so the world will know, however, as her plans unfold, the entire family's faith is shaken to the very core when a deathbed confession causes the family legend to unravel. The results are heartfelt and hilarious.

All tickets are $10/each — (Children 2 years and under are Free)

Tickets can be purchased at the door (with Cash, Check or PayPal) prior to each performance or reserved by emailing LumosPlayers@gmail.com.

Worship Volunteers Needed

Please take some time today to sign up as a greeter, scripture reader, usher or to prepare communion for a Sunday of your choosing. Each position is an opportunity to serve. Any questions please see Nicole Bucalo.

Food for Thought

After “turkey day” came and went last year, a pastor challenged church members to ask one another not “How was your Thanksgiving?” but “How is your Thanksgiving?” After all, giving thanks should be an ongoing act. That doesn’t always need to be profoundly deep, either. A.J. Jacobs, author of Thanks a Thousand, once asked a philosophy-professor friend what he was grateful for. The shockingly simple reply? “Sometimes I’m just grateful I have arms.” That odd but spot-on answer shows the importance, Jacobs says, of being “thankful for things so omnipresent that they can escape our notice.”

So ... how is your Thanksgiving? We hope it is blessed!
